TIRED OF RIDING ALONE? WELL...

YOU'RE INVITED TO A BIKE PARTY!

What? Why?

CRITICAL MASS is a free monthly celebration of the bicycle as transportation...picture hundreds, and possibly thousands (so bring your friends!) of cyclists taking to the street at the same time...

Now that warm weather is coming, there's no excuse not to ride your bike...so ride daily and celebrate monthly! Remember, cycling is FUN, HEALTHY, CHEAP, AND NON-POLLUTING!

When? Where?

CRITICAL MASS happens around the world in hundreds of major cities around the world on the last friday of every month. In Chicago, we meet between 5:30 and 6:00 P.M. at Daley Plaza (Washington and Dearborn) under the Picasso statue. We ride at parade speed (5-10 mph) until 8 or 9. Routes are different every month, suggested by riders and selected by the "cheer vote".
