

MASS UP! The rallying cry of Critical Mass.

When you hear it, pass the call forward. For ‘critical mass’ to be achieved, all riders need to ride together as a unit. When the ride becomes thin, cars begin to break up the group, putting everyone at risk.

If you are at the front of the Mass, and you hear “MASS UP!”, stop at the next light and wait at least two full light cycles before you move forward again.

For more information on ride etiquette, upcoming events, and other local Critical Mass rides, check out ChicagoCriticalMass.org.

MASS UP! The rallying cry of Critical Mass.

When you hear it, pass the call forward. For ‘critical mass’ to be achieved, all riders need to ride together as a unit. When the ride becomes thin, cars begin to break up the group, putting everyone at risk.

If you are at the front of the Mass, and you hear “MASS UP!”, stop at the next light and wait at least two full light cycles before you move forward again.

For more information on ride etiquette, upcoming events, and other local Critical Mass rides, check out ChicagoCriticalMass.org.

MASS UP! The rallying cry of Critical Mass.

When you hear it, pass the call forward. For ‘critical mass’ to be achieved, all riders need to ride together as a unit. When the ride becomes thin, cars begin to break up the group, putting everyone at risk.

If you are at the front of the Mass, and you hear “MASS UP!”, stop at the next light and wait at least two full light cycles before you move forward again.

For more information on ride etiquette, upcoming events, and other local Critical Mass rides, check out ChicagoCriticalMass.org.