

ChicagoNakedRide.org

June 12th 2010

6pm Gather
9pm Ride

JOIN the LIST for INFO

Saturday

World Naked Bike Ride
Celebrating the end of oil and the beauty of people!
& SKATE

May 2010 DERAILLEUR

An unofficial publication of Chicago Critical Mass
ChicagoCriticalMass.org

Springtime fun nurturing issue.

Many thank: Lee Diamond (Big Shoulders Realty), Jane Healy, Jera Dean, Andrew Bedno, willow naeco and the rest.

PARKING METER BEAUTIFERS

$0.00⁹ GAL

PARKING METER BEAUTIFERS

Bike Humor

Q. What's the hardest part about learning to ride a bike?
A. The pavement.

My granny started cycling, she's been doing ten miles a day – and now we don't know where the heck she is!

"Mom, I want to be a bike racer when I grow up."
"Sorry dear, you can't do both."

Q. Why couldn't the bike stand up on its own?
A. Because it was "two tired."

Two ladies are biking down a cobbled road. One says, "I've never come this way before." The other replies, "Must be the cobbles."

BODOGAL MASS

Come join this fun and safe and slow group bike event for kids, kids at heart, and families, to celebrate, educate, and build kids' confidence, skills, and comfort with urban outdoor riding, with a happy parade atmosphere.

June 12
Palmer Square, 3064 W. Palmer Blvd.
Gather in center of park at 10:30 am.

June 19
Near UIC, 825 W. Maxwell St.
Gather in plaza east of Recreation field at 10:30 am.

More info: ChicagoCriticalMass.org/kid

BOTANIC GARDEN RIDE

The massive Botanic Garden in Glencoe is surprisingly close by bike from Chicago.

Take "Green Bay TRAIL" (NOT Green Bay Road) running next to (east of) the Metra line through Wilmette and Kenilworth and Winnetka to Glencoe, carefully navigating the significant discontinuities.

Evanston is most safely traversed on lakefront paths and Shecidan, and through NU campus.

Just 14 miles each way from Rogers Park. Not extremely hard given prep. Watch your load and gearing and water and pauses and clothing, or use train for part of your trip.

Riding at about 11mph it takes an hour just 1:15 to get to the gardens.

Quick as car or rail but FREE!

Details at Bedno.com/CTOG

